Observation Log

DAILY PRACTICE | Notice an experience, explore its meaning, and consider its potential for growth.

Date

1. What did I observe?	Describe the moment, detail, behavior, pattern, or surprise.

2. What truth might this observation reveal?	What might it suggest about people, systems, assumptions, or myself?

3. How might this observation support growth?	What could I learn, reconsider, try, or do differently?

One connection or question to carry forward:

Stay curious: a possible truth is an interpretation to explore, not a conclusion you must prove.
